St. Andrew's Coffee Stands.

In response to inquiries from members respecting this enterprise, we wish to state that our Society has not altered the adverse opinion expressed in the BULLETIN of November, 1889. Without calling in question the motives of Mrs. Lamadrid, its sole directress, we cannot recommend it, because (1) no account is rendered of receipts or disbursements, and (2) its "charity" is indiscriminate, and tends rather to support tramps in idleness and attract them in larger numbers to our city than to aid the worthy poor.

MONTHLY BULLETIN. (CONFIDENTIAL.)

St. Andrew's Coffee Stands.

In response to inquiries from members respecting this enterprise, we wish to state that our Society has not altered the adverse opinion expressed in the BULLETIN of November, 1889. Without calling in question the motives of Mrs. Lamadrid, its sole directress, we cannot recommend it, because (1) no account is rendered of receipts or disbursements, and (2) its "charity" is indiscriminate, and tends rather to support tramps in idleness and attract them in larger numbers to our city than to aid the worthy poor.

Cautionary List.

Any information relating to the persons named below, particularly if of such a character as to warrant a withdrawal of this caution, should be forwarded promptly to the Executive Committee of the Council.

Taylor, J., Jas., or Wm. See Wilson.

New Jersey Industrial Home for the Destitute Blind. Our members are cautioned against contributing to a scheme giving the above and similar names, for which a blind man named Wilson solicits contributions. The man is about 35, medium height and weight, perfectly smooth, intelligent face, hair dark and rather long, good talker, dresses neatly and is generally led by a tall, thin, young fellow, well dressed, about 22, dark brown hair, and small brown mustache. ### Begging Letters.

Few persons are aware of the large extent to which frauds by begging-letter impostors are carried on in this city. Most of these letter-writers are of the better class, shrewd, intelligent, and able to write their own letters, which are pathetic and adroit. Others get their letters written by comrades with better education, with whom they divide the spoils. Lists of wealthy and fashionable, as well as of benevolent persons, are carefully made up from the "Society" news in the daily press, and from the religious weeklies, and the whole business is managed in a most methodical manner.

Some, on their first appeal, were deserving, but were quickly led into a life of deceit by finding how easily kind strangers responded to their appeals; and thereafter they became "professionals." But mostly they are impostors from the start. All who receive touching appeals from utter strangers may be sure that it is very unwise to respond to them until the statements have been carefully investigated by experienced persons; and the more so as they are urged to confidential consideration of the application. A strong point is often made by pretending that near relatives of the writer and receiver were on intimate terms. Members are urged to send all written appeals from strangers to the Society, where already a large collection is formed; and where the various names, under the same handwriting, enable us to dispel many mysteries.

N.B.—Lack of space compels the discontinuance of the lists of District Committees. As these lists are necessarily printed for public distribution in the Society's paper, No. 1, and are revised about every three months, the repetition here seems less necessary. Copies of No. 1 may be had at any time on request, and will be distributed occasionally with the BULLETIN.

Warnings.

A young fellow, of dark complexion, tall and slender, with a husky voice, and a manner that wins sympathy, has been procuring reports of different benevolent societies, and ascertaining from them the names of the managers, has gone the rounds, stating to each that he was sent by one of the others for charitable relief. His usual application is for money or clothing to enable him to go to the Adirondacks, Catskills, or elsewhere for the benefit of his health. Our members will do well to be on the watch for him.

We would caution our members against those who seek advertisements for programmes for concerts and balls in aid of real or pretended charitable institutions, or for help to publish picture books for children's hospitals, and other similar enterprises disguised as benevolent. These solicitors should show unmistakable credentials.

We also caution against a woman with a baby, who tells a pitiful tale to passers-by on the street, but who gives uniformly false address. She should be handed over or reported to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

Another woman of respectable appearance accosts persons on the street, and asks for five or ten cents to pay car fare to some ferry, stating that she has lost her pocket-book. The fact that she does not look like a beggar renders her appeal all the more successful.

Appeal.

The attention of our readers is called to the case of an Italian, over seventy years old, who has been in this country for the past twenty years, and who, as long as his voice lasted, supported himself by singing in opera. He is now trying to make a living by selling combs on the street, but he cannot earn enough. He is a man of considerable education and talks intelligently of his experience on the stage. His wife, aged fifty-six, is an invalid and unable to work, and they are, therefore, partly dependent upon charity. They have two daughters who married without the consent of the parents many years ago, but they have lost all trace of them. The case has been investigated, and is recommended as one particularly deserving of assistance. Money for this object should be sent to Chas. D. Kellogg, General Secretary at the Central Office, and will be promptly acknowledged. The best form would be in small but regular monthly pensions, paid by the donors monthly to yearly as most convenient to themselves.

MONTHLY BULLETIN. (CONFIDENTIAL.)

St. Andrew's Coffee Stands.

In response to inquiries from members respecting this enterprise, we wish to state that our Society has not altered the adverse opinion expressed in the BULLETIN of November, 1889. Without calling in question the motives of Mrs. Lamadrid, its sole directress, we cannot recommend it, because (1) no account is rendered of receipts or disbursements, and (2) its "charity" is indiscriminate, and tends rather to support tramps in idleness and attract them in larger numbers to our city than to aid the worthy poor.

New Jersey Industrial Home for the Destitute Blind. Our members are cautioned against contributing to a scheme giving the above and similar names, for which a blind man named Wilson solicits contributions. The man is about 35, medium height and weight, perfectly smooth, intelligent face, hair dark and rather long, good talker, dresses neatly and is generally led by a tall, thin, young fellow, well dressed, about 22, dark brown hair, and small brown mustache. He gives the location of the "Home" variously as Passaic, Hoboken, Elizabeth, &c. There is no such home in existence.

Begging Letters.

Few persons are aware of the large extent to which frauds by begging-letter impostors are carried on in this city. Most of these letter-writers are of the better class, shrewd, intelligent, and able to write their own letters, which are pathetic and adroit. Others get their letters written by comrades with better education, with whom they divide the spoils. Lists of wealthy and fashionable, as well as of benevolent persons, are carefully made up from the "Society" news in the daily press, and from the religious weeklies, and the whole business is managed in a most methodical manner.

Some, on their first appeal, were deserving, but were quickly led into a life of deceit by finding how easily kind strangers responded to their appeals; and thereafter they became "professionals." But mostly they are impostors from the start. All who receive touching appeals from utter strangers may be sure that it is very unwise to respond to them until the statements have been carefully investigated by experienced persons; and the more so as they are urged to confidential consideration of the application. A strong point is often made by pretending that near relatives of the writer and receiver were on intimate terms. Members are urged to send all written appeals from strangers to the Society, where already a large collection is formed; and where the various names, under the same handwriting, enable us to dispel many mysteries.

Warnings.

A young fellow, of dark complexion, tall and slender, with a husky voice, and a manner that wins sympathy, has been procuring reports of different benevolent societies, and ascertaining from them the names of the managers, has gone the rounds, stating to each that he was sent by one of the others for charitable relief. His usual application is for money or clothing to enable him to go to the Adirondacks, Catskills, or elsewhere for the benefit of his health. Our members will do well to be on the watch for him.

We would caution our members against those who seek advertisements for programmes for concerts and balls in aid of real or pretended charitable institutions, or for help to publish picture books for children's hospitals, and other similar enterprises disguised as benevolent. These solicitors should show unmistakable credentials.

We also caution against a woman with a baby, who tells a pitiful tale to passers-by on the street, but who gives uniformly false address. She should be handed over or reported to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

Russian Famine Relief.

Our members are cautioned to be sure that their contributions for the relief of the Russian sufferers by famine get into the hands of properly authorized parties. We have information that at least one dishonest person from another state is trying to collect, without authority, money ostensibly for this purpose.

We recommend that our members send their contributions either to the American National Red Cross Society, Messrs. Riggs & Co. (Bankers), Treasurer, Washington, D. C., or to J. Pierpont Morgan, Treasurer of the Russian Relief Fund of the Chamber of Commerce, Broad and Wall St., New York City.

Charities Directory.

The 5th edition of our Charities Directory is now published, and being distributed simultaneously with this number of the Bulletin. It is enlarged by 72 pages and contains some new features. It will be useful to our members in solving many charitable perplexities and in pointing to ready and efficient remedies therefor. We will be grateful for the discovery of any errors which may be avoided, or improvements which may be made in succeeding editions.

A copy has been sent to every member and co-operating Church, Society and Institution. If any such fail to receive the book promptly please advise the General Secretary.

We wish also to emphasize the statement, made in the Preface of the Directory, that the Charity Organization Society does not indorse the good faith and usefulness of every enterprise included therein. Like a City Directory it must, as a faithful recorder, give names of the good and the indifferent, and perhaps sometimes of the bad, although some of the latter are purposely omitted. The only safe way to know the Society's estimate of any Charity is to write a note of inquiry, to which our members will always get a prompt response.

Appeal.

The attention of our readers is again called to the case of an Italian, over seventy years old, who has been in this country for the past twenty years, and who, as long as his voice lasted, supported himself by singing in opera. He is now trying to make a living by selling combs on the street, but he cannot earn enough. He is a man of considerable education and talks intelligently of his experience on the stage. His wife, aged fifty-six, is an invalid and unable to work, and they are, therefore, partly dependent upon charity. They have two daughters who married without the consent of the parents many years ago, but they have lost all trace of them. The case has been investigated, and is recommended as one particularly deserving of assistance. Money for this object should be sent to Chas. D. Kellogg, General Secretary at the Central Office, and will be promptly acknowledged. The best form would be in small but regular monthly pensions, paid by the donors monthly to yearly as most convenient to themselves.

N.B.—Lack of space compels the discontinuance of the lists of District Committees. As these lists are necessarily printed for public distribution in the Society's paper, No. 1, and are revised about every three months, the repetition here seems less necessary. Copies of No. 1 may be had at any time on request, and will be distributed occasionally with the BULLETIN.

MONTHLY BULLETIN

OF THE

CHARITY ORGANIZATION SOCIETY OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK,

21 UNIVERSITY PLACE.

SUPPLEMENT TO CHARITIES REVIEW.

ROBERT W. DE FOREST, Pres.
CHARLES S. FAIRCHILD, Vice-Pres.

CONSTANT A. ANDREWS, Treas.
CHAS. D. KELLOGG, General Secretary.

Telephone No., 380 18th st.
Cable Address, "Charity, New York."

A CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATION for Members and Constituents of the Society EXCLUSIVELY.

The attention of members is particularly called to that part of the REVIEW which treats of the work of the society.

AN APPEAL.

The Charity Organization Society desires to appeal for contributions to provide a pension of at least $15 per month, to enable an old and worthy couple to spend together the few remaining years of their lives. The husband, a German by birth, is 74 years old, a tailor by trade, but owing to the infirmities of age is able to do but little work, earning not sufficient to provide himself and wife with food, and nothing toward the payment of the rent of the rooms they have occupied for the past thirty-five years (850 per month). The wife, 70 years of age, is paralyzed on one side and moves about with difficulty. She is able, however, to perform, with his help, all the necessary household duties. No Home would receive them both, and to separate them, after a life spent together for so many years, seems a cruel act and would probably soon be followed by the death of both. Contributions and pledges may be sent to Mr. Charles D. Kellogg, the General Secretary, 21 University Pl.

Ex-Officio Members.

Whitlock, Representative State Charities Aid Association; His Honor the Mayor of the City of New York; The Presidents of the Board of Emigration, of the Police Department, of the Department of Public Charities and Corrections, and of the Health Department.

Ladies' Central Auxiliary Committee.

Miss Kate Bond, Chairman; Mrs. J. F. Tapley, Mrs. Jas. A. Scrymser, Mrs. H. R. Fairfax, Mrs. Osborne Macdaniel, Mrs. Wm. Stone, Mrs. E. R. Heaton, Mrs. Stanley W. Dexter, Miss L. L. Williams.

N.B.—Lack of space compels the discontinuance of the lists of District Committees. As these lists are necessarily printed for public distribution in the Society's paper, No. 1, and are revised about every three months, the repetition here seems less necessary. Copies of No. 1 may be had at any time on request, and will be distributed occasionally with the BULLETIN.

St. Andrew's Coffee Stands.

In response to inquiries from members respecting this enterprise, we wish to state that our Society has not altered the adverse opinion expressed in the BULLETIN of November, 1889. Without calling in question the motives of Mrs. Lamadrid, its sole directress, we cannot recommend it, because (1) no account is rendered of receipts or disbursements, and (2) its "charity" is indiscriminate, and tends rather to support tramps in idleness and attract them in larger numbers to our city than to aid the worthy poor.

Begging Letters.

Few persons are aware of the large extent to which frauds by begging-letter impostors are carried on in this city. Most of these letter-writers are of the better class, shrewd, intelligent, and able to write their own letters, which are pathetic and adroit. Others get their letters written by comrades with better education, with whom they divide the spoils. Lists of wealthy and fashionable, as well as of benevolent persons, are carefully made up from the "Society" news in the daily press, and from the religious weeklies, and the whole business is managed in a most methodical manner.

Some, on their first appeal, were deserving, but were quickly led into a life of deceit by finding how easily kind strangers responded to their appeals; and thereafter they became "professionals." But mostly they are impostors from the start. All who receive touching appeals from utter strangers may be sure that it is very unwise to respond to them until the statements have been carefully investigated by experienced persons; and the more so as they are urged to confidential consideration of the application. A strong point is often made by pretending that near relatives of the writer and receiver were on intimate terms. Members are urged to send all written appeals from strangers to the Society, where already a large collection is formed; and where the various names, under the same handwriting, enable us to dispel many mysteries.

Warnings.

A young fellow, of dark complexion, tall and slender, with a husky voice, and a manner that wins sympathy, has been procuring reports of different benevolent societies, and ascertaining from them the names of the managers, has gone the rounds, stating to each that he was sent by one of the others for charitable relief. His usual application is for money or clothing to enable him to go to the Adirondacks, Catskills, or elsewhere for the benefit of his health. Our members will do well to be on the watch for him.

We would caution our members against those who seek advertisements for programmes for concerts and balls in aid of real or pretended charitable institutions, or for help to publish picture books for children's hospitals, and other similar enterprises disguised as benevolent. These solicitors should show unmistakable credentials.

We also caution against a woman with a baby, who tells a pitiful tale to passers-by on the street, but who gives uniformly false address. She should be handed over or reported to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

SUPPLEMENT TO CHARITIES REVIEW.

Telephone No., 380 18th st.

CHARLES S. FAIRCHILD, *Vice-Pres.*CHAS. D. KELLOGG, General Secretary.

Cable Address, "Charity, New York."

A CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATION for Members and Constituents of the Society EXCLUSIVELY.

The attention of members is particularly called to that part of the REVIEW which treats of the work of the society.

The Appeal

which we made in our APRIL BULLETIN for contributions to provide a pension of $15 a month to enable an old couple to spend the rest of their lives together was liberally responded to by our members in the way of single donations. We are moreover grateful to add that the case has been taken up by a lady of our Society, who has generously guaranteed the full payment of the balance needed to provide for the pension as long as it shall be required; and also assumes friendly relations with the old couple by becoming a regular visitor to them. Thus through the agency of private relief and personal friendship combined we are able to save the old couple from feeling dependence upon the official charity of relief societies for all the time to come.

Important Notice.

When our members send to us for investigation, begging letters which have passed through the mails, they are earnestly desired to send with them the envelopes in which they were received. It often happens, even in the most flagrant cases, that the only action that can be taken against the parties is that of improper use of the U. S. Mails; and in such cases the envelopes, carrying the government post-marks, furnish the only evidence that the mails have been so used.

Warnings.

UNITED STATES CHARITY HOME INSTITUTION.

We wish to caution our members against circulars which have been and perhaps are still being sent to wealthy residents of this city asking for contributions for an enterprise with the above name at Milwaukee. It has been published in the Milwaukee Sentinel of March 26th, as a scheme by ignorant and unknown persons and as entitled to no confidence. The wording of the circulars shows that the promoters are illiterate people. The Chief of Police of Milwaukee has issued a peremptory order to the "Institution" to withdraw from the streets all its collectors and begging committees, and efforts are being made to prosecute the parties for unlawful use of the United States mail. Those of our members who have received and preserved such circulars are requested to forward them with the original envelopes in which they were received, to the Gen'l Sec'y. The envelopes are necessary evidence that the mail was illegally used.

LETTERS FROM HUDSON COUNTY JAIL.

We also wish to warn our members against a prisoner in the Hudson County, N. J., Jail, often signing himself E. Wilson Stoddard or John S. Wolfe, with many aliases, who is writing begging letters to prominent benevolent people of this city. He is held in jail pending appeal from conviction of forgery and a ten years' sentence. The District Attorney of the county informs us that this appeal is evidently made for the purpose of preying upon the charitable by his false statements and that he is one of the worst criminals that he has had to deal with.

Also against William H. Wiegel who writes begging letters from Baltimore, concerning whom the Charity Organization Society has much information which would be valuable to benevolent persons before responding to his appeals.

Members are warned again of girls from 13 to 17 years with holders for sale, who tell a false story of a large family and a sick father, in great destitution. They give various names and false addresses.

N.B.—Lack of space compels the discontinuance of the lists of District Committees. As these lists are necessarily printed for public distribution in the Society's paper, No. 1, and are revised about every three months, the repetition here seems less necessary. Copies of No. 1 may be had at any time on request, and will be distributed occasionally with the BULLETIN.

St. Andrew's Coffee Stands.

In response to inquiries from members respecting this enterprise, we wish to state that our Society has not altered the adverse opinion expressed in the BULLETIN of November, 1889. Without calling in question the motives of Mrs. Lamadrid, its sole directress, we cannot recommend it, because (1) no account is rendered of receipts or disbursements, and (2) its "charity" is indiscriminate, and tends rather to support tramps in idleness and attract them in larger numbers to our city than to aid the worthy poor.

Begging Letters.

Few persons are aware of the large extent to which frauds by begging-letter impostors are carried on in this city. Most of these letter-writers are of the better class, shrewd, intelligent, and able to write their own letters, which are pathetic and adroit. Others get their letters written by comrades with better education, with whom they divide the spoils. Lists of wealthy and fashionable, as well as of benevolent persons, are carefully made up from the "Society" news in the daily press, and from the religious weeklies, and the whole business is managed in a most methodical manner.

Some, on their first appeal, were deserving, but were quickly led into a life of deceit by finding how easily kind strangers responded to their appeals; and thereafter they became "professionals." But mostly they are impostors from the start. All who receive touching appeals from utter strangers may be sure that it is very unwise to respond to them until the statements have been carefully investigated by experienced persons; and the more so as they are urged to confidential consideration of the application. A strong point is often made by pretending that near relatives of the writer and receiver were on intimate terms. Members are urged to send all written appeals from strangers to the Society, where already a large collection is formed; and where the various names, under the same handwriting, enable us to dispel many mysteries.

Warnings.

A young fellow, of dark complexion, tall and slender, with a husky voice, and a manner that wins sympathy, has been procuring reports of different benevolent societies, and ascertaining from them the names of the managers, has gone the rounds, stating to each that he was sent by one of the others for charitable relief. His usual application is for money or clothing to enable him to go to the Adirondacks, Catskills, or elsewhere for the benefit of his health. Our members will do well to be on the watch for him.

We would caution our members against those who seek advertisements for programmes for concerts and balls in aid of real or pretended charitable institutions, or for help to publish picture books for children's hospitals, and other similar enterprises disguised as benevolent. These solicitors should show unmistakable credentials.

We also caution against a woman with a baby, who tells a pitiful tale to passers-by on the street, but who gives uniformly false address. She should be handed over or reported to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

A CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATION for Members and Constituents of the Society EXCLUSIVELY.

The attention of members is particularly called to that part of the REVIEW which treats of the work of the society.

A SPECIAL WARNING.

The young man, with a husky voice and delicate look, who asks for money and clothing to enable him to go to the mountains for his health, and against whom we have in the past year repeatedly warned our friends, is still victimizing the trustees of societies and the members of churches in spite of our warnings. He is an adept in procuring Annual Reports and Church Year Books and in selecting names therefrom. He often pretends to be empowered to call a special meeting of some society, expecting by this pretence of delegated authority to win confidence and thus open the way for a successful appeal. We have abundant evidence to secure his conviction, but our friends never advise us about him until it is too late. If any to whom he may appeal will detain him and send for a policeman, or will arrange for him to call at a fixed time the following day and send immediate word to our Society, we will have an officer on hand to meet him, and will undertake all the trouble of the prosecution. It is a shame that he should be so long permitted to continue his imposition upon the benevolent, and to rob them of their money and sympathy through their own easy compliance.

Whitlock, Representative State Charities Aid Association; His Honor the Mayor of the City of New York; The Presidents of the Board of Emigration, of the Police Department, of the Department of Public Charities and Corrections, and of the Health Department.

Ladies' Central Auxiliary Committee.

Miss Kate Bond, Chairman; Mrs. J. F. Tapley, Mrs. Jas. A. Scrymser, Mrs. H. R. Fairfax, Mrs. Osborne Macdaniel, Mrs. Wm. Stone, Mrs. E. R. Heaton, Mrs. Stanley W. Dexter, Miss L. L. Williams.

N.B.—Lack of space compels the discontinuance of the lists of District Committees. As these lists are necessarily printed for public distribution in the Society's paper, No. 1, and are revised about every three months, the repetition here seems less necessary. Copies of No. 1 may be had at any time on request, and will be distributed occasionally with the BULLETIN.

One of our members, in remitting his annual dues, says: "It is with satisfaction that I enclose $10 for your society. So effectual is your work in detecting and defeating begging impostors that, in my experience of some two years in offering your tickets to persons begging, I have not had even one accepted; and the profane denunciation of your society by these frauds proves that they dread the investigation by you of their claim to sympathy, and at the same time shows that aims given without investigation merely encourages those who are professional beggars and seriously injures those who are really deserving."

The Park Place Disaster Again.

An incident has just occurred recalling the terrible Park Place disaster which shows the good result of the treatment of one of the cases. A German in the prime of life who was a light porter in a Barclay St. china store, was in the restaurant at the time of the accident, and, although escaping with a few bruises, his nervous system was so shattered that he was unable to work, although his employers kindly continued his wages and allowed him to sit quietly by while others performed his duties. Medical care was procured for him, but as he made no gain in strength the doctor advised a prolonged rest at the South, and the Society procured for him an appropriation of $250 from one of the Relief Funds wherewith to send him for the winter to Charleston, S. C., where he was placed under the care and supervision of the President of the German Society of that city who kindly undertook the responsibility. The man has just returned after a sojourn of five months, entirely recovered, and full of gratitude for the course that was pursued towards him. His old employers have reinstated him in his former position where he is again hard at work. Nearly $60 of the appropriation remained unexpended, which was duly returned and is held in trust for future emergencies that may arise in consequence of the Park Place disaster.

The New York Juvenile Guardian Society

against which we have felt it our duty to caution our members for some years is, we believe, in an expiring condition, but we presume the usual effort will be made by it to collect money for its alleged work during the summer; and we venture to suggest to our members that it will be well for them to look anew into the good faith of the enterprise if they should be tempted to contribute to it. We will be glad to answer inquiries from any who may be solicited to give.

A Fraudulent Almoner.

The arrest of Mrs. J. C. Cook, "almoner," whose name has for over a year appeared in our "Caution to Members," and whom the Society has been trying to bring to justice during that time, was made on May 16th through our own officers, and upon evidence courageously given by ladies connected with the Young People's Association of the West End Presbyterian Church, upon whom Mrs. Cook had tried to impose; and ample proof of her dishonesty being presented by the Society, she was committed by Justice Dwyer for six months, and is now in the Work House.

Our first knowledge of her was as a pretended missionary of Asbury M. E. Church asking our co-operation. Upon seeking, as is our rule, to verify her authority, we learned of her false pretences. Later we heard of her as claiming to be a Visitor of this Society and soliciting money and goods for relief purposes; but this apparently not proving successful, she assumed the role of a private almoner and has collected considerable sums of money and large amounts of clothing and other material from the unwary for fictitious cases of distress which she, with great show of piety and sympathy, preferred to help privately rather than appeal to any well-equipped relief society. Scores of people responded to her solicitations without inquiry as to her character or authority, and so aided and abetted her dishonesty. So adroit has she been that the charge upon which she was convicted was the first for which we have been able to secure complete evidence from parties willing to give testimony. Such operators often count largely upon the unwillingness of defrauded persons, who ignore their duty to the public, to testify against them. Her punishment is well deserved.

Begging Letters.

Few persons are aware of the large extent to which frauds by begging-letter impostors are carried on in this city. Most of these letter-writers are of the better class, shrewd, intelligent, and able to write their own letters, which are pathetic and adroit. Others get their letters written by comrades with better education, with whom they divide the spoils. Lists of wealthy and fashionable, as well as of benevolent persons, are carefully made up from the "Society" news in the daily press, and from the religious weeklies, and the whole business is managed in a most methodical manner.

Some, on their first appeal, were deserving, but were quickly led into a life of deceit by finding how easily kind strangers responded to their appeals; and thereafter they became "professionals." But mostly they are impostors from the start. All who receive touching appeals from utter strangers may be sure that it is very unwise to respond to them until the statements have been carefully investigated by experienced persons; and the more so as they are urged to confidential consideration of the application. A strong point is often made by pretending that near relatives of the writer and receiver were on intimate terms. Members are urged to send all written appeals from strangers to the Society, where already a large collection is formed; and where the various names, under the same handwriting, enable us to dispel many mysteries.

The attention of members is particularly called to that part of the REVIEW which treats of the work of the society.

APPEALS.

No. 1.—TO KEEP A WORTHY FAMILY TOGETHER.

The Committee of District II, Charity Organization Society, desires to appeal for contributions to provide continued aid for a woman with two children aged 15 and 9 years respectively; the husband is hopelessly insane, and has been for five years confined in one of the city institutions; the mother, a mattress maker, and formerly earning support for self and children, is now suffering from a complication of diseases which the best medical advice pronounces incurable consequently she is unable to work at her trade, and the small sums she can earn at such work as her enfeebled condition will permit, and the daughter's earnings of $4.00 per week, are at present the only dependence of the family. Temporary aid has been procured by this Committee, and it is now desired to secure sufficient to pay a monthly rent of $7.00, thus insuring shelter and enabling the family to keep together until the children are old enough to support their mother.

No. 2.—TO ENABLE A DAUGHTER TO CONTINUE TO CARE FOR HER INSANE MOTHER.

The same Committee desires also such contributions as will enable an unmarried daughter to continue to provide shelter and food for a widowed and afflicted mother, 60 years of age, who has been nineteen years blind, and for the past ten years partially insane. The mother's delusions are such that she refuses to accept food or any attention from any one except her daughter. She was for a time confined in an insane asylum, and would have remained had the daughter been allowed to be with her. She is a constant burden and care, which up to the present the daughter has been able to bear, hitherto earning a living for self and mother (as cloak maker and seamstress) failing health, impaired eyesight renders it impossible for her to now earn sufficient for all necessities. It is desired to provide a pension of $7.50 per month to aid in paying rent of two rooms which have been their home for the past twenty years.

N.B.—Lack of space compels the discontinuance of the lists of District Committees. As these lists are necessarily printed for public distribution in the Society's paper, No. 1, and are revised about every three months, the repetition here seems less necessary. Copies of No. 1 may be had at any time on request, and will be distributed occasionally with the BULLETIN.

City Directories of 1891.

The Society has need of a few copies of the New York City Directory for 1891—volume 105. If some of our members who have supplied themselves with the new volume 106 for 1892 can spare the previous issue and will kindly so advise the General Secretary he will send for the book, and we will be grateful for the gift.

Appreciative Notes.

It is very encouraging to receive commendatory acknowledgment of reports of the investigations and work which we do for our members, and we may be pardoned for appending a few.

From Geo. Calder, Almoner of St. Andrew's Society:—

"I am obliged for your full, careful and very satisfactory reports in the case of ———."

From a member of the Reform Club:—"Permit me to thank the Society for its effective investigation of the ——— family, as reported to me at various times by the Registrar. If all the work of the Society is so admirably done the results must be extremely valuable."

LEGAL NOTICE.

The Annual Meeting of the "Charity Organization Society of the City of New York" will be held at the Central Office of the Society, No. 21 University Place, New York City, on Wednesday the 4th day of January, 1893, at 5 P.M., for the election of nine members of the Central Council, to take the place of those whose terms then expire, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it.

CHAS. D. KELLOGG,
General Secretary.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

We are very happy to announce that we have had many kind responses to the two appeals in our last BULLETIN, and have received enough to pay the rent in each case for more than a year.

AN INVITATION FROM THE NEW YORK ACADEMY OF MEDICINE.

The Section of Public Health of the New York Academy of Medicine holds monthly meetings for the discussion of subjects affecting the moral or sanitary welfare of the poor. The meetings are usually held on the 4th Wednesday of each month at 8 P.M., and are open to all. Members of the Charity Organization Society are invited to attend the meetings and take part in discussing topics of common interest. In view of our possible invasion by cholera next spring these meetings may be important and helpful.

GENERAL WARNINGS.

1. The young man recently reported as calling himself Walter C. Lawrence has been known to us for years past under various names, see our CAUTIONARY LIST, under Finlay, Wm. Edgar. He seems now to be active as a house to house beggar. He is described as of medium height, with a short, stubby mustache, blackish-grey in color. His appearance is gentlemanly. His story is always the same—that he had "left his pocket-book in his other coat," and found himself unexpectedly out of funds. He asks a small amount to enable him to get to some place he names, which is sure to be nearby. He usually presents a letter when he calls.

2. Two young girls are going around selling iron holders. They have recently been reported as collecting money on holders which they left on pretense that the same had been ordered.

3. The discharged lamp-lighter or letter-carrier, and in general any one who asks you to give him money on the plea of alleged service in your neighborhood, is probably a fraud and should be reported to the Central Office, No. 21 University Place.

4. The Public should understand that those who beg for themselves or in the name of others, upon the public thoroughfares or in private houses, are in the main utterly unworthy of your support. No money should be given to strangers without investigation.

CAUTION TO MEMBERS.

Members are advised to consult with this Society before giving to the societies, private almoners, or persons included in the cautionary lists named below. ### MRS. EGGLESTON'S LEGACY.

To correct an erroneous impression, springing from recent newspaper reports, which might have an unfortunate interference with our receipts, we desire to state that the bequest to this Society by the late Mrs. Henry P. Eggleston, which has been estimated from $75,000 to $100,000, and which is now being contested, will not in any event accrue to the general treasury of the Society. Whatever may be finally received from this source will constitute a Trust Fund, every dollar of the income of which is to be "applied to the benefit of sick children of poor families in the City of New York." Moreover two lives intervene before the estate will be settled.
